

May Parks Programs:

May 2nd Art in the Park- Daisy Watercolor- Tuesday 6:00pm- Anheier Building in City Park. For adults. Joy will teach watercolor techniques resulting in a beautiful Daisy picture. Please register at 574-583-3983 or online montiparks.recdesk.com.

May 11th Flower Power- Friday 6:00pm - Altherr Nature Park Amphitheater (In case of rain- Anheier Building in City Park) Students from Frankie Rupe's School of Guitar will play by the campfire. For all ages, free, dress for the weather.

May 18th Garden Outings- Thursday meet at the Bluestem Nature Center at 802 S Main St. at 7pm. This starts the new year of garden promotion classes. This month's lesson will be in the new prairie garden. Sponsored by SWCD and Parks. All ages invited.

May 23rd Tulip Quilling Flowers –Tuesday 2-4pm – Monticello Public Library. For adults. Joy will show us new and old techniques to craft a quilled tulip picture. Bring your tool if you have one. Please register at the Monticello Public Library.

May 26th Hoots to Howls- Friday at 7pm at the Amphitheater in Altherr Nature Park. Kim Hoover from Hoots to Howls Wildlife Rehabilitation will bring rescued birds and wildlife to the amphitheater and tell their stories. Donations will be accepted. Rain location will be in Bluestem Nature Center.

May 30th POP Kickoff at the Farmer's Market- Tuesday 5-7pm at the old fire station bay doors on Washington Street. Kids learn to purchase and eat healthy food, play, and exercise, all while studying about healthy living. Everyone will enjoy the Farmer's Market.